ADMISSION DAY.

WHAT has become of the old-time governor who never failed to think of the importance of Admission day by issuing a proclamation directing attention to the event! No state can hoast of the same record as Nevada, which was taken into the Union for the double purpose of saving the nation and sustaining the policy of Abraham Lincoln. The lessons taught by the presidential proclamation of 1864 overshadows everything else in the history of the sign. IGNORANCE OF NEVADA.

NOTHER reason why the capitol should be removed from Carson City is found in the dense ignorance manifested by know it all.-Ohio State Journal. the editor of the News, printed in that city, who despises every thing and every person who does not contribute directly to his selfish aims in life. The same attitude is taken with reference to the Indian school. All Indians are pictured as a worthless lot of dissolute loafers and republican majority. - Little Arthur their wives are presented to the world as unfit to mother their children. The whole object of the Indian bureau, which her press agent. New Orleans Times has been burdened with red tape, is to teach the young Indian to Democrati become self-supporting and a good citizen. The Indians of Elko county have made a good start in that direction. Their farms are models of thrift, neatness and order. They have developed irrigation plants and secured water rights that insure bountiful crops for all time to come. They raise stock and fodder and are in every respect good citizens, without the franchise of their white neighbors, Yet the bias-eyed editors of Carson City would rob these parents of their offspring, whom they love with as deep a devotion as any white fathers or methers, and consign them to the government

PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY

Some drug stores devote more time to the commercial side of their business than to the professional. We have always tried to maintain the scientific standard which is required of high-class drug stores, and are glad to have our store known as the "Prescription Pharmacy."

Have your prescriptions put up here where pure ingredients and expert compounding will insure just the results anticipated by your physician. We have only assayed drugs and employ only registered pharmacists—therefore we can safely guarantee purity, accuracy and reasonable prices. Let us fill your next prescription.
